

Two or three years ago Judge Durham had the credit of procuring the passage in Congress of a bill appropriating $70,000 toward the improvement of Cumberland River, contrary to his objections to governmental appropriations or subsidies. The bill for the benefit of the Cumberland was tackled on to a long list of appropriations, aggregating millions of dollars, and in this manner he got it through. Durham knew as well as every body else that the amount appropriated wouldn't help the Cumberland a bit, but he knew there was campaign capital in it, and so used it in his last race. About $25,000 of this money has been spent in playing around in Smith-shoals, which are about seven miles long, and on Saturday morning last Messrs. Jones and Elliott started from their coal banks in Pulaski, about 33 flat boats of coal. Eighteen of them started through the shoals, each of which went under, causing a loss in boats and coal of about $20,000, the life of one man and the narrow escape of a number of others. Word was sent up the river to the other boats, and they were stopped in time to prevent further loss. It is understood that Messrs. Jones & Elliott will bring suit against the government to reimburse them for their loss, alleging that the new dams constructed by the engineer and contractor make the river much more difficult to navigate than before. Mr. Durham is not likely to refer a great many times in the next canvass to the bill "I had passed." That's played out!

UNWILLING that the evil deeds of their party should be investigated, the Republicans in Congress did all in their power to prevent the passage of the resolutions to investigate the Louisiana and Florida frauds at the last Presidential election. A good number of Democrats, who should ever hereafter be kept before the party as men who were too cowardly to stand up to their duty, dodged around for several days, and the Republicans, seeing that if they failed to vote the proceedings would come to a stand still for want of a quorum, refused to do so, and it was not until Friday that a sufficient number of Democrats was present to pass the resolutions, when the vote stood 145 yeas to 2 nays. Subsequently the Speaker announced the following gentlemen as members of the investigating committee: Clarkson N. Potter, (Dem.) New York; Wm. R. Morrison, (Dem.) Illinois; Eppa Hunton, (Dem.) Virginia; John A. McMahon, (Dem.) Ohio; J. C. S. Blackburn, (Dem.) Kentucky; W. S. Steneger, (Dem.) Pennsylvania; James R. Cobb, (Dem.) Indiana; B. F. Butler, (Rep.) Massachusetts; Frank H. Cock, (Rep.) New York; J. D. Cox, (Rep.) Ohio, and Thomas B. Reed, (Rep.) Maine.

NEWSPAPERS.—Prof. Spencer Baird has been elected Secretary of the Smithsonian Institute, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Prof. Henry. The receipts of the Cincinnati Musical Festival were about $30,000 more than expenses. Russia's late war cost her five hundred million of dollars, and yet she is not satisfied. Lydia Sherman, the modern Lucretia Borgia, who was serving out a life sentence in the Connecticut Penitentiary for the murder of her three husbands and seven children, died last week. J. H. Fore, the man who murdered his brother and tried to kill his wife, in 1871, was murdered in the Missouri Penitentiary by another convict. The deed was done with a pocket-knife. Fore received fourteen different stabs. Jeff. Davis, a negro murderer, who was to have hung on the 17th, in Abbeville, S. C., was respited by Governor Hampton till June 15th. The respite did not reach the condemned man until after the Sheriff had adjusted the rope around his neck, and the last farewells had been said.

Mrs. ELIZABETH TILTON is again before the public. Gossips of Brooklyn say that Tilton has been in the habit of secretly visiting his old love, and that the resumption of their marital relations will be made manifest in less than three months, and that the infant will be the pledge of restored love between the two. The Examining Committee appointed to consider the propriety of dropping Mrs. Tilton's name from the church rolls have decided to postpone their action till Fall, to allow the developments that time will make clear.

THE Precinct Delegates chosen at the Primary Election in Pulaski met in Convention last Monday and nominated the following Republican ticket: For County Judge, J. E. Cusson; County Attorney, G. W. Shadoun; County Clerk, C. B. Borch; Jailor, W. S. Shepperd; Assessor, F. B. Linville; Surveyor, W. J. Davidson; Coroner, Perry Goff.

It is understood that the Republican campaign managers have decided to levy on each Republican Senator for $100, each Representative for $50, and $500 apiece from the members of the Cabinet, and the boys will either have to pony up or resign.

AN old man named Marshall Meese, who formerly resided in Pulaski, but now lives in Lebanon, was bound hand and foot by two young men and placed across the railroad track near the latter place, on Saturday night last. In this condition he was found by the town marshal. He was in a senseless state, but subsequently recovered, and swore out writs against the young men, who were lodged in jail to await examination.

EMMETT LOGAN has attained in the few short years of his life, a distinction that many people live and die without achieving. A gentleman in Franklin county, says the Yemen, has named a stud-horse after him. Logan can now retire from the journalistic field that he has so greatly adorned, satisfied that he has reached the highest pinnacle of fame. When, Logan.

HON. W. O. BRADLEY was present at the Pulaski Republican Convention, and signified his determination not to make the race for Congress. Mr. Bradley is tired of playing the part of the innocent lamb in the sacrifice, and wants to let some other man of his party see how badly the Democrats can beat him in this District.

A COVINGTON girl last week fell in love, was courted, proposed to, accepted and married in less than five hours. A Northern man who represented himself as an oil producer, is the hero of the romance, and both are now, no doubt, regretting that the fool-killer hadn't got them both before the little transaction.

TO-day is the sixtieth anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria, and the 41st of her accession to the throne. The event will be celebrated in grand style throughout her kingdom and by her loyal subjects everywhere.

It is reported that Hayes has mildly intimated to Key, that his resignation would be very acceptable to him. Key ought to resign and go and hang himself.

BOTH of the Somerset papers, the Reporter and the Citizen, indulged in "Extras" this week to give an account of the great coal loss in the Cumberland.

JUDGE SAM'L M. BOONE, of Winchester, the great Murphy orator, has announced himself as a candidate for Register of the Land Office.

BEN BUTLER voted straight along with the Democrats while the Presidential title investigation resolutions were pending.

HON. WM. McKEE FOX formally announced himself as a candidate for Congress at the Pulaski County Court last Monday.

BOYLE COUNTY NEWS.

THE BIGGEST THING ON ICE.

Chan Reticker's California Racing Association Troop of Indians and Mexicans will be here on the 30th.

BLOODED STOCK.

Sylvia Springer and Nellie Booker, two rare naves from Mr. James Guest, of this county, ran in the Louisville races.

BOARDING IN JAIL.

Frank Slattern, against whom $2,500 damages were assessed for assault and battery upon the person of a certain Minnie Wilbert, being unable to raise the required sum, was last week placed in jail.

YOUTHFUL PUGILISTS.

Two youths of our city, white and colored, engaged in a passage of arms in front of the post-office Tuesday, in which the colored combatant received a blow over the right eye from a plank, making an ugly wound.

COUNTY COURT DAY.

Auctioneer T. D. English reports as follows: Stock market active, with a large number of people in attendance. Cattle sold readily at from 3c to 4c, owing to quality. But little or no change in the horse and mule market. Quality of stock was fair. (See Capt. Bush's report in Land, Stock and Crop items.)

STRAWBERRY SUPPER.

The ladies of the Reform Church will give a strawberry supper at James' Hall this evening, the proceeds to be used for repairing their church. We sincerely hope their effort will be successful, since the building was very much defaced and the carpet almost ruined during the meetings held in it by Mr. Barnes.

HOP AT JAMES' HALL.

Mrs. Florence Moore, of Louisville, who has for some time past been giving dancing lessons here, will give a Hop at James' Hall next Tuesday evening. We learn that several couples from Louisville will be present. The affair will be an elegant one, and we are requested to extend a cordial invitation to the young people of Stanford to attend. Music will be furnished by Eichen's String Band.

RELIGIOUS.

The Rev. Mr. Henderson, pastor of the 2nd Presbyterian church, preached at Paint Lick last Sabbath. Mr. J. C. Young held divine service. Immediately after this latter service, a committee of gentlemen from the various churches of the town held a meeting in order to establish rules and regulations for holding a series of Bible readings and a weekly prayer meeting. The prayer meetings will be held every Thursday evening at Bell Seminary, and the next Bible-reading on Sunday afternoon at the Reform church. This is one of the good results of Mr. Barnes' sojourn in our midst.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. A. Williams, Principal of Daughters' College, Harrodsburg, with his wife, dined at the Clemens House last Saturday.

Miss Besie K. Stodghill, the bright particular star of our village, accompanied, left on Monday for a lengthy visit to her sister at Jackson, Tenn. Miss Ella de Boode, of Lexington, is visiting the Meses Tunes.

Mr. C. W. Metcalfe is in Cincinnati this week. Mr. W. E. McAfee, of Louisville, made a short visit last week. Judge Breckinridge attended the grand meeting of the Knights of Honor in Nashville last week. Messrs. J. C. Tryman and J. B. Adams, two handsome bachelors of this place, left for Louisville this morning, ostensibly on business. The Races are going on there this week! We had the pleasure this afternoon of "clashing in friendly grasp" the hand of Mr. W. B. Hansford, the gentlemanly solicitor for the Pulaski Circuit.

GRADUATE.

GARRARD COUNTY NEWS.

LANCASTER. WHAT'S UP?

Louisville is mysteriously attractive this week to our gentlemen.

FINE TEAMS.

Mr. Clark Farris' fine teams give our streets a distinguished appearance.

THE GREAT RACING ASSOCIATION.

Of which we hear so much is posting bills all about for an exhibition in this section.

JUDE.

Tell Daisy Hornsbe not to be in a hurry about that name. We are going to hunt up an uncommonly pretty one. Beats Jude wonderfully.

ROSE, M. J. DURHAM.

Will address the people of Garrard at the Court-house on Saturday next. The Congressional race bids fair to become spirited ere the close.

TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP, THE BOYS, &c.

The nomads of the highway are making their appearance in small squads, these fair days. The usual stories of sick husbands, no work, starving children, &c.

ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Sallie Burdett, of this place, while riding in a carriage with a friend at Parkersville, was thrown out by the horse becoming unmanageable, and sustained painful injuries.

RACE BALL CONTESTS.

On Saturday morning there will be a game of Base Ball between the Kirksville first-nine and the second-nine of our Academy boys. In the afternoon our first-nine will play against the Nicholasville nine.

COURT NOTES.

The Court-house bell occasionally breaks upon the monotony of these quiet days, but there are probably none but casual offenses on the docket. The celebrated road case that occupied last week's term of Common Pleas terminated in a tangle, so far as an intelligent report from an outsider is concerned. Suffice it that the end is not yet.

ARRESTS.

Last week our Town Marshal was compelled to wound a negro while attempting to arrest him. Another arrest was made of a disorderly man who was proved to be insane. He had a deep gash in his skull which was accidentally broken by his brother several years ago and the injury caused the brain to give way. The case was one to excite sympathy.

THE MANIA HAS REACHED LANCASTER.

Peletarianism is penetrating even our quiet town where novelty requires time to take root. Little Mary and Ned undertook to ride his stick horse, to Lancaster Wednesday morning, and was actually under way when picked up by Mr. A. C. Robinson. This might be considered a feat (if it were any like) for a three or four-year old aspirant. He said his horse would scare at the train!

PERSONAL.

Mr. Oscar Tillet is now living in Lancaster. Miss Mary Tillet, of Lexington, is his guest this week. Misses Hattie Reid, Maggie Dunn and Eliza Reynolds are at Harrodsburg, in the capacity of delegates to the State Baptist Association. Miss Mattie Price, of Lexington, is spending a few days with friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Durham, of Danville, were in town attending the Floral Festival, on Tuesday night.

Mr. Wm. Kinnaird, Jr., has gone to Parsons, Kansas, to enter the dry goods business with Mr. C. R. Millard, formerly a resident of our town. Mrs. J. A. Anderson is at Eminence visiting her parents. Miss Lillia Smith is at Harrodsburg on a visit.

CINCINNATI FESTIVAL.

I have not space enough for the Festival at Cincinnati. Other pens too, have filled the dailies with elaborate descriptions. Suffice it that I had all the delight possible from the exquisite harmonies of the varied programmes, and much of the annoyance from a crowded city and a multiplicity of room mates. Cary, Osgood and Whitney, were absolutely perfect in tone and execution. Pappeheim did not please so universally. The thundering mammoth Organ, the hundreds of chorus singers, and the one hundred orchestra musicians led by the wonderful master, Thomas, all contributed to the absorbed enchantment of 8,000 listeners.

THE AMENDE HONORABLE.

My last letter, written hurriedly, without revision, on the eve of a trip to Cincinnati, was a trifle obscure on the pro tem Judgeship of the Hon. J. W. Alcorn during the last days of the Common Pleas Court. The bar did unanimously elect this worthy gentleman to preside in the great Road Case, and did, after Judge Orsley's unexpected return from Wayne, appoint the latter to the presiding office. But I supposed it to be well known that Mr. Alcorn was counsel in the case, and hence his retiring to his legitimate post when a substitute appeared. The impression that the gentleman did not give satisfaction was an erroneous one, caused by the haste and carelessness of my pen.

SUPPER AND FLORAL FESTIVAL.

The strawberry supper and Floral Festival took place, as advertised, on Tuesday night. Both proved highly successful and the company enjoyed the evening with more than ordinary zest. The flower containing the flowers was called El Dorado, from a poetical fancy, and was formed of lace curtains suspended from an octagonal pulley frame that was raised or lowered by a pulley. This awning was looped and decorated with Chinese lanterns and flowers. The premium for the floral design was awarded to Mrs. M. Chaisins Dunlap, whose design represented an "Epergne, and was handsomely formed of flowers and foliage plants. A tiny Cupid surrounded the central stem. The contesting designs were a large formed of thick-stemmed white roses, with strings of gold; and a summer garden. The latter contained flower-beds in which fine roses and geraniums were made to assume the shapes of diamond, crown, anchor and cross. The walks were of white roses, and the intervening spaces were filled in with green moss. There was a Bower of Roses, a Summer-house, a lake and fountain playing, a river and rustic bridge, a gate, hedge and trees, with a rocky grey coral near the lake. Little people gaily dressed were dispersed all about the grounds. Hanging lanterns represented by fuschias formed a fringe of light to Rose Bower. These three designs competed for the prize. In the department of cut flowers Mrs. Joseph Robinson won the premium. The contesting display was a magnificent collection upon a wire structure six or eight feet high. Miss Maggie Curry won the prize on a bouquet. Their contributions were all handsome and well arranged. Small tables draped with crimson. The various committees seemed to do their utmost to insure a pleasant and profitable affair.

AN ASTONISHING FACT—A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The results of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away for its virtues with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all druggists on the Western Continent. Bohon & Stagg, Stanford, Ky.

THIS TORPEDO—THE DAWN OF A NEW ERA IN THE POLITICAL HISTORY OF THE WORLD.—Under the auspices of the Navy Department, Captain John Ericsson and Mr. Asa Weeks are now maturing their particular experiments which are, it is believed, destined to outdo all past achievements in the torpedo line, and the time is probably not far distant when a perfection in the construction and use of this instrument shall render the practicability of further naval warfare out of the question. This will, of necessity, revolutionize the present system of warfare between civilized powers, and we may, therefore, at an early day, learn of the beginning of necessarily improved methods in national economy, and, let us hope, better international policies than have hitherto been mutually extorted, as a rule, by the nations of the world. An article in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for June, entitled "Torpedoes and their Use in Modern War," by Lieut. Col. Chas. H. Webb, (illustrated with 33 cuts), is highly interesting in connection. It exhibits the various forms, modes of action, and degrees of success attending the use of the torpedo up to the present time. The same number of the Popular Monthly contains an especially instructive article entitled, "Our Ten Great Party Leaders," viz: Alexander Hamilton, Andrew Jackson, Thomas H. Benton, Jno. C. Calhoun, Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, Thomas Jefferson, Stephen A. Douglas, Abraham Lincoln and William H. Seward, with accompanying portraits—those of Clay, Calhoun and Webster, being full-length reproductions from costly steel plates, which are not to be duplicated. This magazine is certainly making rapid strides ahead of some of its many rival enterprises to the public favor; its articles, all good and timely, are written in a truly popular style, neither too deep for young readers, who, in the pursuit of knowledge, require to be entertained, nor too shallow for readers of mature growth and intellectual attainment. The price of single copies is 25 cents; annual subscription, $3.00, prepaid. Address: Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53, 55 & 57 Park Place, New York. In addition to the articles above mentioned, the June number contains "The History of Electricity" (13 cuts); "Our Southern Frontier" (12 views); etc.; several beautiful stories (complete) by popular authors, and a carefully selected miscellany. There are 128 quarto pages of fine engravings, and a prettily colored frontispiece.

MR. J. B. LAWRENCE, after a short spell of sickness, is again at his post in the Mail Car. Mr. J. B. Wood has been transferred to the run on the C. & L.

MISS REV. V. E. KESTLER, who has been on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. E. O. Milton, at Mendenhall, for the past several months, returned a few days ago.

MISS HERBERTA BALLINGER, an old lady of 82, has just completed a lot of seven "Mottos" one for each of her children. She seems to be in the best of health, and the execution is as perfect as any we have seen from younger and sturdier fingers.

MISS BEALE LIVERSTON returned on Tuesday from a most delightful visit to Jessamine. There is a probability, we understand, that a young gentleman of that county will, in the near future, come over and claim her for his bride. This is a secret, however.

PETER MEIN McROBERTS has successfully passed his final examination at Centre College, and is now at home preparing his address to be delivered at the commencement on the 20th of June. Twenty young men take the sheep skin at that institution this year.

SWEET GIRL GRADUATES—Misses Julia Craig, Lucie Lane, Harriet Fair, Florence Eaton, Kate Babin and Lella Jordan compose the graduating class at the Stanford Female College this year. The contest for the Valedictory has narrowed down to the claims of Misses Lane and Craig, and a good deal of interest is felt in the result, which will be announced to-day.

LOCAL NEWS.

WEAVER & EVANS sell a good two horse wagon with bed and brake, for $70.

If you want to buy a Mower or Reaper, call on Weaver & Evans, and learn something to your interest.

You who owe taxes had better read Sheriff Felant's card, and act on its suggestion at once. He means business.

A. A. WARREN is agent again for the old reliable front end Buckeye Reaper and Mower. Samples on hand at the P. O.

SPRING CHICKENS are coming into market and sell readily at $2 per dozen. We'll take them at that price for subscription.

On next County Court day we will sell at auction a second-hand Combined Champion Mower and Reaper, in good repair. Weaver & Evans.

J. N. DAVIS says that those indebted to him had better see to the payment of their accounts, as they may find them in the hands of Bobbitt.

MESSRS. LEE & McMAHAN tell us in another column, of the bargains that you can get at the 49 and 99 Cent Store. Read advertisement, and give them a call.

You may look the dry-goods market over from one thing to another, without finding any thing more elegant and as cheap as the handsome dress-goods at Hayden Bros.

A NUMBER of ladies availed themselves of the chance to buy nice Parasols and Fans, and Fan Chains at Hayden Bros. during the last few days—they are so very cheap and pretty.

MONEY OFFICE.—Postmaster J. R. Warren prepared a bond this week for the money office to be established here about the 1st of July. We hope there will be no delay in getting it, as it is a want that ought to have been supplied long since.

PARTIES desiring to supply themselves with boots, shoes, fine hats and ready-made clothing at from 30 to 50 per cent. less than wholesale prices can do so by calling at Tevis' old stand on Main Street. Also a few sizes of upper leather for much less than can be purchased elsewhere.

CHAS. ORCHARD SPRINGS.—This lovely resort is now open to the public, and we learn that the prospects for a prosperous season was never better. Maj. Shelby Tevis is every thing in "apple-pie order" and intends, if possible, to make the season even more pleasant than last. Full particulars, rates of board, &c., will appear in our next issue.

ORDERED HIM OUT.—Yesterday, a stranger came into the Post-office here, and without any ceremony, walked in behind the private enclosure. Uncle Jimmy Warren ordered him out, at the same time telling him that he did not allow such liberties as that, even to his most intimate friends. The gentleman smiled and said that he was a Post-office detective. Uncle Jimmy demanded the papers, which the detective, who proved to be Mr. Brown, produced, and complimented Mr. Warren for his action. That's the kind of a P. M. we have.

A THIEF.—On Monday night last, a young man, who gave his name as John Taylor, stayed all night at the house of Mr. Lair, who lives at Richmond Junction. After his departure next morning, Mr. Lair discovered that he was minus a pair of pants, a vest, pair of boots and a pocket book containing fifty cents in cash, and about $1,000 in bonds. A telegram was sent to Sheriff Hawk, of Mt. Vernon, to arrest the young man as he passed through Rockcastle, and bring him here for trial. Mr. Hawk put some boys on the lookout for him and in a short time they reported that the game had arrived. He then went out and took the wayfarer in, and yesterday brought him to this place and lodged him in jail. The examining trial is set for to-day. Taylor claims to be from Whitley county, but has been absent for four years in Illinois, and was on his way home when the Sheriff arrested him. He will no doubt wait four more years before he sees the old folks at home, or chat with Whitley's honored representative, the Hon. James Perkins.

TRYING TO INTIMIDATE.—Elder J. C. Perkins, who lives near Chas. Orchard, writes to enquire what has become of the friends since Court. He says that a number of persons who were indicted by the last Grand Jury have learned of the fact and are swaggering around with double-barreled shot guns and big pistols, swearing they will not be taken, and threatening to kill those who testified against them. His wife tells us, has been repeatedly threatened since Court by that midnight mob that attempted to rob his son last year. He thinks their object, if not to kill, is to scare him off, but in this they will be mistaken, as he intends to give his life, if necessary, to prove to the world, who made that dastardly attempt at robbery. He is satisfied in his own mind who they are, and calls on the officers to arrest those indicted before they are allowed to commit more of their deviltry. We second the motion, and hope that steps will be taken at once to jail every man indicted at the last Court, or make them give bond for their appearance. The people will be satisfied with nothing short of a coward.

A COWARDLY CROWD.—Last Friday night at 12 o'clock, Charley Weiland, with two other men, went to the house of his brother, the butcher, and demanded admission. Mrs. Weiland got up and opened the door, when young Weiland rushed in and told his brother that he wanted his brother's blood and intended to have it. The butcher was not disposed to accommodate him, but on the other hand proceeded with the butt end of a pistol to get some of the head blood of the young man. He knocked him senseless and then his cowardly partners left the scene with more speed than decency. After young Weiland had somewhat recovered, he told Constable G. W. Bobbitt, who was called to the scene that Jim Bliss was one of the men who was with him but refused to tell the name of the other man. Next day he denied that he had told Bobbitt about Bliss, but said that he was so drunk he didn't know what he was doing; nor who was with him. The reason he thirsted so much for his brother's blood, was that he had discharged him the day before for drunkenness and general non-accountedness. Mr. Weiland has refused to prosecute his brother for the attempted assassination, so no warrant has been issued. Jim Bliss denies being with the party, but a nephew of Mr. Bobbitt, and a negro girl assert that he was there and fired a pistol once or twice during the scuffle.

CARSON & DODDS have opened an ice cream and strawberry saloon.

S. S. MYERS, at Tevis' old stand, will sell you a hat or a pair of shoes or boots at just what they cost by wholesale.

TAN BARK.—The tan bark trade, which was so lively last season, amounts to scarcely nothing this year. Only two car-loads have been shipped from this point, so far. The fact is, nearly all the trees for miles around here have been skinned.

STABLE.—Henry Baughman is putting up the St. Asaph Hotel lot, a stable that will stall 90 horses. Mr. Richards, proprietor of the Hotel, has not yet decided whether he will use it for a Livery Stable or only to accommodate the horses of his customers.

AT HOME.—The pressure was too great for Judge Durham to remain in Washington, so he has come home and will start on his "grand rounds" of speech making at once. Lancaster is to get the first benefit, to-morrow, at 1 o'clock. Then Liberty, on the 27th; Somerset, on the 28th; Monticello, 29th; Jamestown, 30th; Columbia, 31st; Campbellville, June 1st; Stanford, June 2nd, and Lawrenceburg, 4th. He invites the other aspirants for Congress to be present on these occasions.

A BROSSEL AND A HALF OF RATS.—Jno. Cook, colored, tells us that one day this week he purchased ten cents worth of Arsenic and sprinkled it in some nest around his house. He was unable to observe the good effects of his work until a day or two afterwards, when his wife, who "kept a smelly" smutlin'" insisted on his taking up the floor. He did so, and had the satisfaction of finding three half bushel baskets of dead rats. This sounds like a right big rat yarn, but no one who knows any thing about this rat-ridden old town will doubt that each house-keeper has to support at least that many of the pestiferous pests.

ACCIDENT.—Last Sunday evening what came near being a fatal accident, occurred near Parkville, in Boyle county. A party of ladies, Mrs. Sallie Burdett, of Lancaster, and Mrs. Jacob Cozart, and Mrs. Owen Hocker, of Parkville, were out driving in a rockaway. While descending a hill near the Cemetery, a strap connected with the harness gave way, when the horse began to run and kick in a terrible manner. After running about 100 yards, the carriage was overturned, and the ladies thrown out. All of them were severely injured, and it was at first thought that Mrs. Cozart was fatally hurt. At this writing her condition is quite critical, but hopes of her recovery are entertained. Mrs. Burdett, who was head struck a rock or some other hard substance, producing a serious contusion of the temple, and Mrs. Hocker, are both doing well, and will recover. Little Johnnie Cozart, who was also in the carriage, received some bruises.

DON'T YOU WISH YOU WERE AN EDITOR?—We are in luck this week, sure. Monday Mrs. W. F. Ramsey, of the Commercial Hotel, sent us over a nice lunch of strawberries, ice-cream and cake. Next, the Misses Mitchell kindly thought of us, and sent a basket of cake and strawberries. Yesterday Mrs. Garrard Elkin, besides a big bowl of strawberries, favored us with a nice lot of new Irish potatoes as big as your fist, a supply of onions, radishes, &c. And last—but by no means least, Miss Mena Simpson, who looked as sweet as the fruit she carried, called at our office and left her regards in the shape of silver of huge strawberries, a new variety, which her father prides himself on as having introduced in this part of the country. We thank each of these kind friends, the more especially when we know that sympathy for us in our troubles induced the gifts. If we are tied out in the back yard by the madam to keep us away from the Press Convention, as Logan spitefully remarks in the C. J. of Saturday last, we have the consolation that we can have a small convention of our own. We have all the ingredients.

STRAWBERRY SUPPER.—Accepting the kind invitation of the family of Mr. W. H. Wherry, to come over and join them in a raid on their fine strawberries, we went in company with the "ole' man" and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bruce, on Friday last, to their hospitable and lovely home at Lancaster. After a hearty welcome from each of the family, and a stroll over Mr. Wherry's magnificent garden and orchard, we were invited to supper, and such a supper! The array of meats and other substantial, strawberries, ice-cream, cake, &c., fairly bewildered us, but like the rest of our party we soon got down to work, and showed our appreciation of the good things to such an extent that the family were in turn bewildered at the amount of our capacity. Mrs. Wherry's reputation as a No. 1 house-keeper is a deserved one, and we cheerfully accord her the blue-ribbon. We have never met a more interesting, or a happier family, nor have we often spent a more delightful evening. Mrs. B. knew that the "ole' man" were taken sick on their return, but we are glad to say that they are both convalescent.

MARRIAGES.—PANETT—On the 22nd, Mr. George A. Padgett to Miss Nancy Jane Padgett.

DILLON—ROSE.—Mr. Martin Dillon, who is favorable known to nearly every body along the line of the Lebanon Branch of the L. & N. R.R. as one of the cleverest baggage smasher in the business, was married a few days ago to Miss Jimmie Rose, a beautiful young lady of Louisville.

RELIGIOUS.—The Southern Methodist General Conference now in session at Atlanta, Ga., has resolved to hold a Centenary of American Methodism, in Baltimore, in 1884.

A listener to his sermon on last Sabbath "wishes Elder W. L. Williams to explain what has become of the little stone cut out of the mountain, to these 1800 years."

The Kentucky Baptist Ministers meeting in at Harrodsburg, Tuesday, and organized by electing Rev. Geo. Hunt, of Versailles, Moderator, and Revs. R. D. Pay and C. G. Skillman, Secretaries. A large number are in attendance.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—Hoping to find a large increase in the attendance at the Sunday Schools, we sauntered forth last Sunday, which was a beautiful May day, to take another count. We first visited the Christian church, and found 89 teachers and scholars present—an increase over the count of March 29th of 33. The Methodist came next, with 33; an increase of 2. Then the Presbyterian, with 57; an increase of 5, and lastly the Baptist, with 29; a decrease of 8. This is still a bad showing. There should be 500 scholars here at least.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP ITEMS.

The report from the wheat crop is still very favorable for a large yield.

Col. T. P. Hill bought of Smith Baughman, a 4-year old filly for $115.

L. A. Moore bought of Mr. Johnson, of Tennessee, 31 calves at $15 per head.

Mr. John Cook is ahead of 'em all. He has cut and shocked his field of rye at the Junction.

James Paxton sold to Dick Moore, 40 lambs at $4 per hundred, to be delivered June 10th.

J. D. Swope bought of sundry parties, 1,000 lambs to be delivered June 15th, at $4 per hundred.

J. D. Swope shipped yesterday to friends in Alabama two pairs of Red Berkshire hogs, for which he paid $12.50 per pair.

The first new wheat of the season arrived in St. Louis, from Dallas, Texas, last Monday, and sold at auction at $1.25 per bushel.

GEORGETOWN, May 20.—From 400 to 500 cattle were on the market, and sold at from 2 1/2 to 4 1/2, per pound. No mules offered. Common horses brought from $40 to $80.

MT. STERLING, May 20.—From 300 to 400 cattle on the market, most of which sold at from 2 to 2 1/2 cents. A few extra went as high as 3 1/2 to 4 cents. A small number of mountain sheep sold low.

DANVILLE COURT DAY.—About 450 or 500 cattle on the market. Stock sold more quickly and lively than at any time during the season. Capt. H. T. Bush sold 15 good yearling heifers at $20.00; 22 2-year old heifers at $25.00; 6 heavy oxen at $3.75 per hundred; 11 2-year old cattle, good, at $39.00; 23 calves at $21.25; 1 Alderney cow, $26.50; 1 do. $26.75; 1 Alderney calf, weanling, $40.25; 9 heifer calves, $15.50; 33 scrub yearlings, $17.75; 1 bay horse $75; 1 sorrel do., $55. No mules offered.

LOUISVILLE.—The cattle market shows a decline of from 15 to 20 cents per hundred from last week's prices. Strictly fancy butcher cattle bring $4.50, though but few reach these figures. Medium to good, $3.50 to $4. Common to medium, $3 to $3.25. Long steers and poor cows, $2.25 to $2.75. Open $2.00 to $3.50. Hogs continue to go down—choice $2.70 to $2.80. Fair to good, $2.50 to $2.65. Sheep from $3.10 to $4.25. Lambs from $4.50 to $5. Common to medium lambs by the head bring from $1.50 to $2.50.

Last Saturday, at Crab Orchard, Col. J. W. Weatherford, as Assessor of John Ed. Edmonson, sold the following property: One store-house and lot, occupied by Carson Bros., to J. F. Edmonson, for $400; 1 store-house and lot, occupied by John Edmonson, to J. F. Edmonson, for $200; Dwelling and lot, near depot, to George James, for $300; a 2 acre vacant lot, to T. S. Proctor, for $71; 45 acres of Knob Land, to Robert Peryan, for $96—and 153 acres of Knob Land, for $45. It will be seen that the whole property brought about $1200, which is $1400 less than the deed of trust that covered it. Comment is unnecessary.

LOUISVILLE Races. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 21, 1878. Editor Interior Journal: All the world and the rest of mankind witnessed the Derby to-day; and according to prediction the talent fell heavily. First race 1 1/4 mile, 3 starters—Edinburg, (favorite), 2:13 time; King William, 2nd (favorite) Dan K. won easily, sold last in the pools. The Derby, 3:05 time; 9 to start. Hipsay (favorite) won to the others lunched. Harry Star won. Time, 2:37; Hipsay, 2nd; Levelee, 3rd. Third race—mile heats—5 started. Adventure (favorite) Joe Roden won 1st heat in 1:45; Janet won 2nd heat in 1:45; with Adventure 2nd. Third heat races Janet won in 1:45. All the favorites fell and hit the knowing delegation a "Devil of a whack." Yours in haste, LEM.

WEDNESDAY 22. The Alexander Stakes for two-year olds, dash of 1/2 mile, was won by Gen. Buford's Goodnight, over 11 competitors in 51; Vender, 2nd. The second race was for the Louisville Hotel purse of $500, $100 to go to second horse, 2 mile heats—Kinloch, (favorite) took it in two straight heats, Time, 3:45 and 3:49; Uncle Jeff, 2nd. The Handicap for all ages, purse of $350, $50 to second horse, 1 1/2 mile dash, was taken by Mahdick, over five starters in 2:40; John R. Sweeney, 2nd. Kenesaw broke completely down in the race.

LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS. Harrodsburg. FARM MATTERS. It is expected that corn planting will progress rapidly if the ground should ever become dry enough. There is great fear of a short wheat crop in consequence of the continued wet weather. Weeds, however, never looked better so early in the season.

THE PARKVILLE ACCIDENT. O. P. Cozart, of Cozart, Rose & Co., was called to Parkville, on Sunday night, by the information that his mother was supposed to be fatally injured by a runaway horse. He writes that he found her in a critical condition, but a dispatch six hours later gives some hope of her recovery.

CUMBERLAND FALLS HOTEL. Soc Orens is making diligent preparation for removal to his hotel property at Cumberland Falls for the season. He forwarded a portion of his merchandise yesterday to Duvallville, on Green River, with Billy Williams as supercargo. R. W. Bradley is to follow in a few days to aid in running the business.

SERENADE. Permit your correspondent to acknowledge the reception on Monday night of a charming serenade, by Billy Williams, Asquire Peyton and Frank Wilcher, given as an expression of their appreciation of his modest merit, and unpretending usefulness. It was kindly conceived and admirably executed—mingled in his dreams—and a little later, whispering its soft warblings around and through the grand disposition of the storm conjured up visions bright as fairy-land and grand as monumental antiquity.

CHANGE OF BASE. W. H. Smith & Co. have taken the house vacated by Owens, where, after a retouching of the paint, and furnishing of the fixtures, they will open out under the management of the veteran v-rebanch, and polite salesman, J. B. Green, assisted by the fascinating Sandler. Logan, of this firm, has returned to Lancaster, and left us saddened by his loss. His usual luck seems to attend him; for on his way to this place a few days since, driving a vicious horse, the animal opened his battery on the buggy, and in demolishing it inflicted a severe injury on Logan's leg, laying him again, and calling out the sympathy of our whole community.

OUR FISHING PARTY. Consisting of Alex. Williams, Toke Hocker, Dick Bradley and Bill Bishop, returned the other day in the midst of a drenching rain, and looking more picturesque than beautiful. Billy Williams standing under an awning saw them driving up, and having arranged a stone-jar horizontally on the backs of two chairs, and with a black cloth thrown over it, halted the party, asked them to be quiet a moment, ducked his head under the curtain, and then thanking them for the favor, blandly waved them a signal to proceed. The joke was relished more by the bystanders than the subjects, who returned after a time inquiring for the negative. Billy was equal to the emergency, and told them he had succeeded in such a way as to create a revolution in the photographic art. They demanded an impression each, when he produced four of those vegetable Irishmen which appear on the cards of some of the seedmen, and claimed that the novelty of the operation consisted not in securing individual likenesses—which is not always desirable—but in selecting the peculiar beauties of each, and combining them in one grand embodiment. Billy has left town!

Ping-pong. GETTING WELL. The sick at this place, I'm glad to hear, are all convalescent.

IT IS MORE ENCOURAGING. FARMERS are looking more cheerful since the sun has made its appearance.

LADIES CATTLE. Mr. Green Bright is said to have a bunch of the largest cattle in the county.

WAR ON THE SQUIRRELS. Hunters are playing sad havoc with the squirrels in this locality since the law has been repealed.

PERSONAL. Mr. T. E. Bruce and wife, of Lebanon, passed through this place a few days ago on their way to Grand county, to visit relations.

AN UNNATURAL MOTHER. A few nights ago a negro woman living at this place, left her young child in bed, went to a neighbor's visiting, stayed until a late hour at night, came back, retired without paying any attention to the child, and slept soundly all night. Next morning the child was found dead in bed, having died, no doubt, before the mother returned from her visit.

CURIOUS AND FRIGHTFUL. A difficulty occurred a few days ago at the toll-gate, mid-way between this place and your town, between Mr. William Latin, the gate-keeper, and Will Alexander. It seems that Alexander and Mrs. Latin had a dispute about some toll, Alexander gave her the lie about it and rode off. During his absence Latin came home and was told by his wife how she had been treated. In a short time Alexander rode up and dismounted, and told Latin he had a word for him. Latin says yes, and "I have a word with you, too, God d—n you." Just about that time he fired away with the butt end of a black-snake whip and downed Alexander, and his wife a few blows, after he was down when he began to plead for mercy. Latin had compassion on him, let him up and that ended the melee.

Waynesburg A QUADREUP. Mr. E. J. Dodd says there was a chicken hatched out this Spring at his house with four legs, but it died.

LAND SALE. Mr. Nathan Wells sold his farm, 4 miles North of this place, to Mr. Elliott, of Owen county, Ky., for $780.

STOCK SALES. Mr. W. T. Murphy sold a horse to James Parsons, for $45. Mr. W. T. Murphy, purchased a mule of G. W. Horton, for $25.

FIGHTING NO DOUBT. Harry Drye and El G. Gaines, of color, were tried at King's Mountain, on the 14th inst., before E. Padgett, J. P., for a breach of the peace. They were fined $5 each, and the costs—equally divided.

AGRICULTURAL. There is a great deal of complaint in this vicinity about wheat having rust. Some of the farmers are not done planting corn on account of the wet weather we have had for about two weeks.

LOGGE MEETINGS. The Waynesburg Lodge, No. 1550, I. O. G. T., meets on the 1st and 2nd Saturdays in each month, at 2 o'clock, p. m. The Waynesburg Grange Lodge, No. 1422, meets the 4th Saturday in each month, at 1 o'clock, p. m. And the Masonic Lodge, No. 328, meets at their Hall, in this place, on Saturday before the full moon in each month, at 2 o'clock, p. m.

A DEBATING SOCIETY. Was organized at the Hall of School-house on Saturday night, the 18th inst. Nathan Wells, was appointed President, and E. D. Padgett, your correspondent, Sec'y. The subject discussed was—Which was treated the more cruel, the Negro or the Indian. It was decided in favor of the Indian. The subject for next Wednesday night is— "Which can be better dispensed with, Animals or Metal."

PERSONAL. Mr. N. S. Reynolds' wife is very ill at present. Mr. G. W. Chft, left for Richmond, Ky., on the 16th inst, to visit his sister, sick at that place. E. S. Gooch, Ermine Padgett and Miss Sarah A. Johnson, returned home yesterday from B. F. Eubanks', near Stanford. They had been there several days on a visit. Mr. G. W. Horton, has rented his house and lot at Eubanks' Station, to Lewis Mills, and has moved his family to Moreland's Station, and put up a dry-goods store. Mr. J. B. Horton has rented out his house and lot at King's Mountain, and has moved his family to Waynesburg. R. D. P.

WET TRY. Editor Interior Journal: Can't you induce your placatorial correspondent to give your readers in one of his entertaining letters, a sketch of the joyous spirits of the angler in the region of Roy's Mill?

USCUL AMOS. A suggestion to Padgett. Editor Interior Journal: A speck of war was recently visible on the Hustonville horizon. The cause belli grew out of the verbal ignorance of a philologist coming in contact with the offended modesty of female innocence. We have the cock of the pistol, the cock of the whisky barrel, the cock of the walk, and the going-off-half-cocked, but take the liberty to suggest to the quondam "Falsalt" that Chatterbox is a better synonym for cock of the barn-yard, and its use would likely preserve the peace in all neighborhoods where the people, like our Campbellite brethren, believe there is something in a name. A rose will not smell as sweet by any other name. S. C. M.
